

FootHuggers Comfort Socks Newsletter

- December 2007 Issue -

www.foothuggers.com

Congratulations to Wayne Schaar from Lino Lakes, MN!

Wayne was the December 2007 winner of a free pair of socks in our monthly drawing. Each month, we draw one name from our email list and that person receives a FREE pair of FootHuggers Comfort Socks of their choice.

Since you have joined our mailing list, you are automatically entered in this drawing every month!

Winners are excluded from future drawings for 6 months.

Quote of the Month

"I gave a pair to my 82 year old mother who has circulatory problems. Her feet are always cold. She called me last night to say he hasn't taken the socks off since I gave them to her - she even wears them to bed. She said that I can take back everything I bought her for Christmas. She wants more of these socks."

It's Official! - Santa wears FootHuggers Comfort Socks!

This year while exhibiting in Charlotte, NC we were lucky to meet with Santa himself and learned that FootHuggers have become his favorite socks. He wears them every day, especially on his trip around the world delivering gifts to all boys and girls. Mrs. Claus likes them too!

Christmas Links

With Christmas approaching very soon, I thought you might enjoy a little help in finding information that might bring a little joy to your family. Therefore, here is a quick reference list of sites that can be useful for your Christmas plans.

www.allthingschristmas.com - This site is a wealth of information and a resource for most things associated with celebrating Christmas. Includes Christmas traditions, carols, recipes, stories, decorating ideas and help, videos, and lots more.

www.merry-christmas.com - This site too is a wealth of information about Christmas, why we celebrate Christmas, movie reviews, recipes and much, much more.

www.christiananswers.net/hope/thehope-c8.html - This is a Christian-based site that offers a video called "The Hope". The video is available online free or can be purchased. I previewed the video and found it very complete and informative. This is a great video for anyone who wants a more clear understanding of why we celebrate Christmas. A great review for all ages.

www.noradsanta.org/en/tracksanta.htm - NORAD tracks Santa on his way to deliver gifts to children around the world. This site allows you to coordinate with Google and be prepared for Santa's trip. Check this out if you want to have fun with young children.

Christmas Gifts

By now most of you have completed your Christmas shopping and can spend the rest of your time sending Christmas cards, decorating your home, and simply enjoying the holiday with family and friends. NOT!!! However, if you are like me, you are postponing shopping and will simply do it later. Often much later. Like the night before Christmas Eve. Not again!

Take a moment and make your gift list now.

Christmas is the one time of year that you can give a gift to almost anyone to show them that they are appreciated and you think enough about them to give them a gift at this joyous time of year. Obviously you have your family, relatives, and close friends. But have you considered giving a gift to others that influence your life in small ways? The paperboy, the dry cleaner, the coffee shop clerk who knows how to make your drink just right, the car mechanic who really cares. Maybe someone elderly who needs a little pick-me-up at this time of year. If you take a moment and ponder, I'm sure you can think of many people who would appreciate a kind word or gift at this special time of year.

Gift Ideas

FootHuggers Comfort Socks - The gift of comfort on your feet.

Any of our FootHuggers make a great gift for anyone who suffers with cold feet or who has foot discomfort. People with Diabetes, Raynauds Syndrome, Neuropathy, or just sore feet actually need FootHuggers. Choose from anklets, crew, or knee-high bootsocks.

A Timely Story for the Season

Louise Redden, a poorly dressed lady with a look of defeat on her face, walked into a grocery store. She approached the owner of the store in a most humble manner and asked if he would let her charge a few groceries. She softly explained that her husband was very ill and unable to work, they had seven children and they needed food. John Longhouse, the grocer, scoffed at her and requested that she leave his store at once. Visualizing the family needs, she said: "Please, sir! I will bring you the money just as soon as I can." John told her he could not give her credit, since she did not have a charge account at his store.

Standing beside the counter was a customer who overheard the conversation between the two. The customer walked forward and told the grocer that he would stand good for whatever she needed for her family.

The grocer said in a very reluctant voice, "Do you have a grocery list?" Louise replied, "Yes sir." "O.K" he said, "put your grocery list on the scales and whatever your grocery list weighs, I will give you that amount in groceries." Louise, hesitated a moment with a bowed head, then she reached into her purse and took out a piece of paper and scribbled something on it. She then laid the piece of paper on the scale carefully with her head still bowed.

The eyes of the grocer and the customer showed amazement when the scales went down and stayed down. The grocer, staring at the scales, turned slowly to the customer and said begrudgingly, "I can't believe it." The customer smiled and the grocer started putting the groceries on the other side of the scales.

The scale did not balance so he continued to put more and more groceries on them until the scales would hold no more. The grocer stood there in utter disgust. Finally, he grabbed the piece of paper from the scales and looked at it with greater amazement. It was not a grocery list, it was a prayer, which said:

"Dear Lord, you know my needs and I am leaving this in your hands."

The grocer gave her the groceries that he had gathered and stood in stunned silence. Louise thanked him and left the store. The other customer handed a fifty-dollar bill to the grocer and said, "It was worth every penny. Only God knows how much a prayer weighs."
