Quote of the Month

(This quotation actually came in a while back, but I thought it would be most appropriate for this time of year.)

"I gave a pair to my 82 year old mother who has circulatory problems. Her feet are always cold. She called me last night to say she hasn't taken the socks off since I gave them to her - she even wears them to bed. She said that I can take back everything I bought her for Christmas. She wants more of these socks."

It's Official - Santa wears FootHuggers Comfort Socks!

Last year while exhibiting in Charlotte, NC, we were lucky to meet with Santa himself and learned that FootHuggers have become his favorite socks. He wears them every day, especially on his trip around the world delivering gifts to all the boys and girls. Mrs. Claus likes them too! This photo has become a classic!

A Timely Story for the Season

Louise Redden, a poorly dressed lady with a look of defeat on her face, walked into a grocery store. She approached the owner of the store in a most humble manner and asked if he would let her charge a few groceries. She softly explained that her husband was very ill and unable to work, they had seven children and they needed food. John Longhouse, the grocer, scoffed at her and requested that she leave his store at once. Visualizing the family needs, she said: "Please, sir! I will bring you the money just as soon as I can." John told her he could not give her credit, since she did not have a charge account at his store.

Standing beside the counter was a customer who overheard the conversation between the two. The customer walked forward and told the grocer that he would stand good for whatever she needed for her family.

The grocer said in a very reluctant voice, "Do you have a grocery list?" Louise replied, "Yes sir." "O.K" he said, "put your grocery list on the scales and whatever your grocery list weighs, I will give you that amount in groceries." Louise, hesitated a moment with a bowed head, then she reached into her purse and took out a piece of paper and scribbled something on it. She then laid the piece of paper on the scale carefully with her head still bowed.

The eyes of the grocer and the customer showed amazement when the scales went down and stayed down. The grocer, staring at the scales, turned slowly to the customer and said begrudgingly, "I can't believe it." The customer smiled and the grocer started putting the groceries on the other side of the scales.

The scale did not balance so he continued to put more and more groceries on them until the scales would hold no more. The grocer stood there in utter disgust. Finally, he grabbed the piece of paper from the scales and looked at it with greater amazement. It was not a grocery list, it was a prayer, which said:

"Dear Lord, you know my needs and I am leaving this in your hands."

The grocer gave her the groceries that he had gathered and stood in stunned silence. Louise thanked him and left the store. The other customer handed a fifty-dollar bill to the grocer and said, "It was worth every penny. Only God knows how much a prayer weighs."
