"Hi...My name is Sandy Mitchell and I live in Omaha, NE. I already have a few pairs of your WristHuggers and I absolutely love them. I have a medical problem in my left arm. I had all of my arteries blocked by blood clots several years ago. They were only able to clean out one of them. This was caused by an aneurysm under my clavicle. They repaired that only to have scar tissue grow over the area, leaving me with very poor circulation in my left arm and hand. When I am the least bit chilled I have quite a bit of discomfort. This occurs in the summer as well as winter.

I was absolutely miserable and tried desperately to find something to keep my arm and hand warm. Nothing worked. Then I saw your booth at the craft fair in Omaha. I bought one pair at that time to try them and they worked perfectly. I now have five pair. But some of them are getting fairly old and need to be replaced. I wear these WristHuggers all day and when I am sleeping. They are the only thing that I have found to keep my arm and hand comfortable. I am serious. I have tried regular gloves and every sleeve type thing that is out there. Nothing helped, until I started wearing your WristHuggers. I cannot do without them."

Sandy Mitchell*

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

By now most of you have completed your Christmas shopping and can spend the rest of your time sending Christmas cards, decorating your home, and simply enjoying the holiday with family and friends... Maybe not.

This year more than ever, many people are feeling the pinch of the economy. In a time when we all want to hold back, it might be the most important time to think of others who may have even less. Christmas is the one time of year that you can give a gift to almost anyone to show them that they are appreciated and you think enough about them to give them a gift at this joyous time of year.

Obviously you have your family, relatives and close friends. But have you considered giving a gift to others that influence your life in small ways? The paperboy, the dry cleaner, the coffee shop clerk who knows how to make your drink just right, the car mechanic who really cares. Maybe someone elderly who needs a little pick-me-up at this time of year.

If you take a moment and ponder, I'm sure you can think of many people who would appreciate a kind word or gift at this special time of year.

GIFT CERTIFICATES ON-LINE

Still looking for that perfect gift? This year make gift giving a little easier with a FootHuggers Gift Certificate. They're guaranteed "one size fits all" and so easy - you can buy them from home in your pajamas!

- Loved one far from home? Don't worry about shipping. The gift certificate is emailed directly to the recipient and they can make their purchases online. When they place their order, we do the shipping!

- Not sure what size or color to get? Let the recipient choose what size or color they need. They can use the gift certificate on any item in our online store!

- Running out of time? The online gift certificate is perfect because it is instantly delivered to the recipient via email. No worries about shipping schedules, time spent shopping and wrapping, etc. It's the easiest solution for the last-minute gift!

Here's how it works: Visit our online store and click the "Gift Certificates" link at the top of the page. Enter the name and email address of the recipient, your name and email, the amount you want to purchase, and even enter a custom message that will be printed on their certificate. Once you complete the purchase and pay for the gift certificate, an email will be sent to the recipient notifying them of the gift and giving them a link so they can visit the online store and spend their certificate on whatever they want!

Of course this is the perfect time for the Christmas-themed gift certificates, but keep in mind that these can be purchased year-round for birthdays, other holidays or any special occasion!

A TIMELY STORY FOR CHRISTMAS

Louise Redden, a poorly dressed lady with a look of defeat on her face, walked into a grocery store. She approached the owner of the store in a most humble manner and asked if he would let her charge a few groceries. She softly explained that her husband was very ill and unable to work, they had seven children and they needed food. John Longhouse, the grocer, scoffed at her and requested that she leave his store at once. Visualizing the family needs, she said "Please sir! I will bring you the money just as soon as I can." John told her he could not give her credit since she did not have a charge account at his store.

Standing beside the counter was a customer who overheard the conversation between the two. The customer walked forward and told the grocer that he would stand good for whatever she needed for her family. The grocer said in a very reluctant voice, "Do you have a grocery list?" Louise replied, "Yes sir." "O. K." he said, "put your grocery list on the scales and whatever your grocery list weighs, I will give you that amount in groceries." Louise hesitated a moment with a bowed head. Then she reached into her purse and took out a piece of paper and scribbled something on it. She then laid the piece of paper on the scale carefully with her head still bowed.

The eyes of the grocer and the customer showed amazement when the scales went down and stayed down. The grocer, staring at the scales, turned slowly to the customer and said begrudgingly, "I can't believe it." The customer smiled and the grocer started putting the groceries on the other side of the scales. The scale did not balance so he continued to put more and more groceries on them until the scales would hold no more. The grocer stood there in utter disgust. Finally, he grabbed the piece of paper from the scales and looked at it with greater amazement. It was not a grocery list. It was a prayer which said "Dear Lord, you know my needs and I am leaving this in your hands." The grocer gave her the groceries that he had gathered and stood in stunned silence. Louise thanked him and left the store.

The other customer handed a fifty dollar bill to the grocer and said, "It was worth every penny. Only God knows how much a prayer weighs."

CHRISTMAS LINKS

Before you know, Christmas will be here. I thought you might enjoy a little help in finding information that might bring a little joy to your family. Therefore, here is a quick reference list of sites that can be useful for your Christmas plans.

www.allthingschristmas.com

This site is a wealth of information and a resource for most things associated with celebrating Christmas. Includes Christmas traditions, carols, recipes, stories, decorating ideas and help, videos and lots more.

www.merry-christmas.com

This site too is a wealth of information about Christmas, why we celebrate Christmas, movie reviews, recipes and much, much more.

www.christiananswers.net/hope/thehope-c8.html

This is a Christian-based site that offers a video called "The Hope". The video is available online free or can be purchased. I previewed the video and found it very complete and informative. This is a great video for anyone who wants a more clear understanding of why we celebrate Christmas. A great review for all ages.

www.allrecipes.com/Recipes/Holidays-and-Events/Christmas/Mail.aspx

This link is great for all your Christmas cooking. You'll find lots of favorite foods for any Holiday event.

www.northpole.com

Enjoy Christmas with Santa Claus at the North Pole, an award-winning Christmas web site. Send a letter to Santa Claus or a Christmas card to a friend. This site has a lot to offer.

www.noradsanta.org

NORAD tracks Santa on his way to deliver gifts to children around the world. This site allows you to coordinate with Google and be prepared for Santa's trip. Check this out if you want to have fun with young children.
